Salutation and Call to Worship Luke 24:1-7; Psalm 98:1-2

Rev. Hausler

On the first day of the week, at early dawn, they went to the tomb, taking the spices they had prepared. And they found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in they did not find the body of the Lord Jesus. While they were perplexed about this, behold, two men stood by them in dazzling apparel. And as they were frightened and bowed their faces to the ground, the men said to them, "Why do you seek the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be delivered into the hands of sinful men and be crucified and on the third day rise."

Oh sing to the Lord a new song, for he has done marvelous things!

His right hand and his holy arm have worked salvation for him.

The Lord has made known his salvation; he has revealed his righteousness in the sight of the nations!

*Opening Hymn

"Christ the Lord is Risen Today"

Hymnal #277

*"Christ the Lord is ris'n today," Alleluia!
sons of men and angels say; Alleluia!
raise your joys and triumphs high; Alleluia!
Sing ye heav'ns, and earth, reply. Alleluia!*

*Vain the stone, the watch, the seal; Alleluia!
Christ has burst the gates of hell: Alleluia!
death in vain forbids his rise; Alleluia!
Christ has opened paradise. Alleluia!*

*Lives again our glorious King; Alleluia! where,
O death, is now thy sting? Alleluia!
Once he died, our souls to save; Alleluia!
where thy victory, O grave? Alleluia!*

*Soar we now where Christ has led, Alleluia!
foll'wing our exalted Head; Alleluia!
made like him, like him we rise: Alleluia!
ours the cross, the grave, the skies. Alleluia!*

*Hail, the Lord of earth and heav'n! Alleluia!
Praise to thee by both be giv'n; Alleluia!
thee we greet triumphant now; Alleluia!
hail, the Resurrection, thou! Alleluia!*

*Opening Prayer and Confession of Faith

Mr. J. Kim, Intern

Christian, what is your hope on this side of glory? “We are hard pressed on every side, but not crushed; perplexed, but not in despair; persecuted, but not abandoned; struck down, but not destroyed...because we know that the one who raised the Lord Jesus from the dead will also raise us with Jesus. Therefore, we do not lose heart. Though outwardly we are wasting away, yet inwardly we are being renewed day by day. For our light and momentary troubles are achieving for us an eternal glory that far outweighs them all! So we fix our eyes not on what is seen, but on what is unseen. For what is seen is temporary, but what is unseen is eternal!” (2 Corinthians 4:8-9,14,16-18)

“These Things I Have Spoken Unto You”

John 16:33

*These things I have spoken unto you, that in Me you might have peace.
In the world you shall have tribulation, but be of good cheer, be of good cheer,
For I have overcome the world.*

Call to Repentance

1 Thessalonians 4:13-5:11

We do not want you to be uninformed, brothers, about those who are asleep, that you may not grieve as others do who have no hope. ¹⁴ For since we believe that Jesus died and rose again, even so, through Jesus, God will bring with him those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁵ For this we declare to you by a word from the Lord, that we who are alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will not precede those who have fallen asleep. ¹⁶ For the Lord himself will descend from heaven with a cry of command, with the voice of an archangel, and with the sound of the trumpet of God. And the dead in Christ will rise first. ¹⁷ Then we who are alive, who are left, will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air, and so we will always be with the Lord. ¹⁸ Therefore encourage one another with these words.

Now concerning the times and the seasons, brothers, you have no need to have anything written to you. ² For you yourselves are fully aware that the day of the Lord will come like a thief in the night. ³ While people are saying, “There is peace and security,” then sudden destruction will come upon them as labor pains come upon a pregnant woman, and they will not escape. ⁴ But you are not in darkness, brothers, for that day to surprise you like a thief. ⁵ For you are all children of light, children of the day. We are not of the night or of the darkness. ⁶ So then let us not sleep, as others do, but let us keep awake and be sober. ⁷ For those who sleep, sleep at night, and those who get drunk, are drunk at night. ⁸ But since we belong to the day, let us be sober, having put on the breastplate of faith and love, and for a helmet the hope of salvation. ⁹ For God has not destined us for wrath, but to obtain salvation through our Lord Jesus Christ, ¹⁰ who died for us so that whether we are awake or asleep we might live with him. ¹¹ Therefore encourage one another and build one another up, just as you are doing.

*Not what my hands have done can save my guilty soul;
not what my toiling flesh has borne can make my spirit whole.*

*Not what I feel or do can give me peace with God;
not all my prayers and sighs and tears can bear my awful load.*

*Thy work alone, O Christ, can ease this weight of sin;
thy blood alone, O Lamb of God, can give me peace within.*

Thy love to me, O God, not mine, O Lord to thee, can rid me of this dark unrest, and set my spirit free.

*Thy grace alone, O God, to me can pardon speak;
thy pow'r alone, O Son of God, can this sore bondage break.*

*No other work, save thine, no other blood will do;
no strength, save that which is divine, can bear me safely through.*

*I bless the Christ of God; I rest on love divine;
and with unfalt'ring lip and heart, I call this Savior mine.*

This cross dispels each doubt; I bury in his tomb each thought of unbelief and fear, each ling'ring shade of gloom.

*I praise the God of grace; I trust his truth and might;
he calls me his, I call him mine, my God, my joy, my light.*

*'Tis he who saveth me, and freely pardon gives;
I love because he loveth me, I live because he lives.*

Silent Prayer of Confession

Assurance of Pardon

Ephesians 2:1-10

And you were dead in the trespasses and sins ² in which you once walked, following the course of this world, following the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that is now at work in the sons of disobedience— ³ among whom we all once lived in the passions of our flesh, carrying out the desires of the body and the mind, and were by nature children of wrath, like the rest of mankind. ⁴ But God, being rich in mercy, because of the great love with which he loved us, ⁵ even when we were dead in our trespasses, made us alive together with Christ—by grace you have been saved— ⁶ and raised us up with him and seated us with him in the heavenly places in Christ Jesus, ⁷ so that in the coming ages he might show the immeasurable riches of his grace in kindness toward us in Christ Jesus. ⁸ For by grace you have been saved through faith. And this is not your own doing; it is the gift of God, ⁹ not a result of works, so that no one may boast. ¹⁰ For we are his workmanship, created in Christ Jesus for good works, which God prepared beforehand, that we should walk in them.

Scripture Reading and Prayer 1 Corinthians 15:1-19

Now I would remind you, brothers, of the gospel I preached to you, which you received, in which you stand, ² and by which you are being saved, if you hold fast to the word I preached to you—unless you believed in vain.

³ For I delivered to you as of first importance what I also received: that Christ died for our sins in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁴ that he was buried, that he was raised on the third day in accordance with the Scriptures, ⁵ and that he appeared to Cephas, then to the twelve. ⁶ Then he appeared to more than five hundred brothers at one time, most of whom are still alive, though some have fallen asleep. ⁷ Then he appeared to James, then to all the apostles. ⁸ Last of all, as to one untimely born, he appeared also to me. ⁹ For I am the least of the apostles, unworthy to be called an apostle, because I persecuted the church of God. ¹⁰ But by the grace of God I am what I am, and his grace toward me was not in vain. On the contrary, I worked harder than any of them, though it was not I, but the grace of God that is with me. ¹¹ Whether then it was I or they, so we preach and so you believed.

¹² Now if Christ is proclaimed as raised from the dead, how can some of you say that there is no resurrection of the dead? ¹³ But if there is no resurrection of the dead, then not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁴ And if Christ has not been raised, then our preaching is in vain and your faith is in vain. ¹⁵ We are even found to be misrepresenting God, because we testified about God that he raised Christ, whom he did not raise if it is true that the dead are not raised. ¹⁶ For if the dead are not raised, not even Christ has been raised. ¹⁷ And if Christ has not been raised, your faith is futile and you are still in your sins. ¹⁸ Then those also who have fallen asleep in Christ have perished. ¹⁹ If in Christ we have hope in this life only, we are of all people most to be pitied.

Benediction

Congregation standing*

"We gather together on the first rather than the seventh day of the week because redemption is even a greater work than creation and more worthy of commemoration and because the rest which followed creation is far outdone by the rest which ensues upon the completion of redemption. Like the Apostles, we meet on the first day of the week and hope that Jesus may stand in our midst and say, "Peace be unto you." Our Lord has lifted the Sabbath from the old and rusty hinges where on the law had placed it long before and set it on the new golden hinges which His love has fashioned. He has placed our rest day not at the end of a week of toil but at the beginning of the rest which remains for the people of God. Every first day of the week we should meditate on the rising of our Lord and seek to enter into the fellowship with Him in His risen life."

CH Spurgeon

I know the resurrection is a fact, and Watergate proved it to me. How? Because 12 men testified they had seen Jesus raised from the dead, then they proclaimed that truth for 40 years, never once denying it. Every one was beaten, tortured, stoned and put in prison. They would not have endured that if it weren't true. Watergate embroiled 12 of the most powerful men in the world-and they couldn't keep a lie for three weeks. You're telling me 12 apostles could keep a lie for 40 years? Absolutely impossible.

Announcements

O Worship the King! We believe that worship is one of the most important things the church does. All of God's people are called to participate in worship, from the youngest to the oldest among us, engaging our heart, soul, mind and strength. Our God is holy, beautiful and awesome! We want our worship to be the same, so our goal is to have a musical style that is consistent with our theology: joyful and reverent. In time, we hope to develop a rotation of youth and adults accompanying our singing with violin, cello, brass, wind and other instruments to make our worship excellent and beautiful. Please let us know if you might be interested using your talents among us.

Small Children: Please feel free to make use of our two nursery rooms. Coloring packs are also available near the Welcome Table to help keep little hands busy. We joyfully welcome families with young children and we know that wiggles and whispers are part of the learning process!

Gifts and Contributions: If you would like to contribute to the ministry of this church, checks may be made out to: "Christ the King Presbyterian Church" and placed in the offering. A local finance committee and the session (elders) of this church supervise all the finances of this church. Thank you for your support!

Men's Breakfast and Bible Study ~ Tuesday, April 6 at 7:00 AM. Join us for a hot breakfast, a meaty Bible study, and fellowship with other men. This week's study: Romans 15:8-13. We will be practicing social distancing in our seating and serving.

Wednesday Night ZOOM Bible Study ~ April 7 at 7:00 PM – Join us for a Bible study of 1 John 2:20-27 and taught J.Kim. This week: What does the Holy Spirit teach?

Women's Bible Study ~ Thursday, April 8 at 2:00 PM. Join us this week for fellowship, a study from Philippians, and a season of prayer. Please wear a mask.

Today is our last Sunday at BridgePrep Academy for morning services. Next week, on Sunday April 11, we will return to meeting at 3400 Radio Rd. at 10:00 AM.

Prospective Intern – Please pray for Nate and Katie Paschall as they consider our invitation for Nate to come to Christ the King Church as our next intern.

Mission Team Joining Us Today ~ Reformed Mission Services (RMS) has sent a team of youth and adults to SW Florida for a week of ministry and outreach in our community. They will be washing windows in The Shores (as an outreach) and for our church members (as a blessing to you!) If you would like to have them come to your house to wash windows on Monday or Tuesday, please contact our intern, J. Kim.

Presbytery of the South Meeting this week – Pastor Hausler, Elder Jerry Baker, and our intern J. Kim will be traveling to Northern Florida this week for the semi-annual meeting of the Presbytery of the South at Calvary OPC in Tallahassee, leaving early Thursday morning and returning late on Saturday. At Presbytery, reports are given about the work of the Gospel in our region, as well as examining men to be licensed or ordained to preach the Gospel in the churches of the OPC.
